MATTER _____

Dear Tiny,

I was delighted to get your good letter of 27 July, and to learn of your satisfactory trip to Germany and of your future plans.

I am convinced that you are wise in basing yourself primarily in Germany, for long residence over here in the long run would not work out, although I hope that you will be a frequent visitor.

After you left I received, with the envelope which I enclose, stenographic report in German of the Militaer-Gerichtshof Nr. IV, Nuernberg, Deutschland from 11 April and following days. It would be pretty expensive to send this over and presumably you could get duplicates in Germany from the address on the attached envelope. However, let me know what you wish me to do with the papers.

Sincerely,

H. B. Gisevius, Esq.,
Commugny sur Coppet,
Vaud, Switzerland.
